Ricky Skaggs, The Whites and Skaggs Family Receive Two Dove Nominations

It was recently announced that Ricky Skaggs, The Whites — Buck, Sharon and Cheryl — along with Skaggs Family members Molly Skaggs, Luke Skaggs and Rachel Left have been nominated in two categories for the 43rd Annual Gospel Music Association Dove Awards to be held in Atlanta's historic Fox Theatre on April 19.

A Skaggs Family Christmas Volume Two is up for Christmas Album of the Year and A Skaggs Family Christmas Live is up for Long Form Music Video of the Year.

"I'm very excited about the Dove nominations," says Skaggs, "We released Volume One back in 2005 because our fans asked us for it," Ricky recalls. "We didn't know if we'd ever do another one, but we've been hearing from our fans and they were ready for more Christmas songs, so we made Volume Two. It was a joy to create and we're excited to share it."

A Skaggs Family Christmas Volume Two, released in September 2011, features a ten-song CD with both studio and live recordings along with a bonus DVD filled with twenty performances of traditional seasonal favorites and new compositions from the highly successful A Skaggs Family Christmas tour, videotaped in high definition at the historic Ryman Auditorium in Nashville, Tennessee.

Ricky Skaggs has won two previous Dove Awards, which are Bluegrass Recorded Song of the Year in 2001 for "Are You Afraid To Die" and also with The Whites for Bluegrass Album of the Year in 2008 for Salt Of The Earth.

2012 Bluegrass Festival Lineup Released

The two-day lineup for the 8th Annual Bloomin' Barbeque & Bluegrass festival is finalized. The event will be held on May 18 and 19 in Sevierville, Tennessee, and has been named a Southeast Tourism Society Top 20 event for

May. Bring a lawn chair for the free Bluegrass concerts with rising stars and legends of the Bluegrass genre (past headliners have included Ricky Skaggs, Marty Stuart, Del McCoury and more).

The Travelin' McCourys will be the headlining act of this year's festival and will perform on Saturday, May 19 at 8PM. The group features Ronnie (mandolin) and Rob McCoury (banjo), sons of Del McCoury, a popular Bluegrass legend. Two additional band members include Jason Carter (fiddle) and Alan Bartram (bassist), forming a powerful group playing both traditional and progressive music. "This is always an exciting time of the year for us as we finalize our lineup and begin final preparations for the festival," says Amanda Marr, Sevierville Chamber of Commerce marketing director. "The talent level of this group of performers is amazing, and they will certainly provide a full weekend of great entertainment for everyone in attendance."

This family-friendly event will once again bring barbeque cooking teams from all over the United States to Sevierville to compete for $15,000 in cash and prizes. Rounding out the event is toe-tapping Bluegrass music, incredible arts and crafts, kids' games and the Mountain Soul Vocal Competition honoring Sevierville's favorite hometown girl, Dolly Parton.
